

Bristol Area Down's Syndrome Support

Hi everyone,

The committee have decided that the best time to go to Centre Parcs is 3-6 Dec 2010. Some of the group have been at this time and it really gets XMAS off to a great start. We also agreed that any BADSS family joining us that weekend will get a £200 contribution. Centre Parcs have not offered us any incentive but will hold a mix of 40 villas at today's price. We are trying to agree some discounts on entertainment applicable that weekend.

From the prices below this means if you paid the full £150 for Ruda the price could range from £111 refund (£339 2 bed comfort) However if you decided to share with another family from BADSS (£829 4bed exec) it would be just another £64.50 per family. The choice is yours.

The only constraint is you have a short window of opportunity to commit. We have until the 19th Jul to book villas at these prices, and would need to pay for them by end of September. So we need to know your decision by 19th Jul, if we have not heard by that date we will refund any payments previously made for Ruda. It is unlikely that we will be able to change our group booking beyond that date, so if you drop out it will be your responsibility to arrange a replacement and get any payment due. Close family and friends will also be welcome to share your villa but if they want to book an independent villa these will not be eligible for the £200 from BADSS. Please reply both to Betty and I bettyhumphries@sky.com and info@badss.co.uk.

Alternatively, if you cannot commit to this group opportunity, you can still book for the same weekend directly with Centre Parcs. BADSS would still contribute the £200 but this would be refunded by a cheque in Dec but be aware the prices below cannot be guaranteed.

Regards

Andrew K & Betty H
